COMET ROAD rated a slim lead three wide through the backstretch, drew clear approaching the three eighths pole, lost some ground leaving the turn but held on well with steady handling. BLUSHING JULIET stalked the pace from the inside, started her bid toward the three eighths pole, eased out entering the stretch and finished evenly to chase the winner home. SYD N CARLY'S ROSE stalked the pace while between horses on the backstretch, dropped back from between those rivals approaching the turn and raced evenly the remainder. CHISELING NICKIE showed no speed in mid track and had no rally. EDGER was outrun. LIL' GEM bobbed slightly at the start, settled off the pace outside, came through the turn widest then weakened. The stewards reviewed a claim of foul against the winning rider, lodged by Angel Serpa, before declaring this race official without change.
